WELCOME to our brochure

“Taking you There, with Pride & Care”

Leesa & Paul

Firstly, we'd like to wish you all a warm welcome to the 4th Edition of our brochure and to wish you all well to both returning customers and new ones. After the difficulties of the past pandemic year, we thank you for your loyalty during the challenging time of lockdown and invite you to take some time to read the following pages, where you will find a delightful programme of some of our favourite places as we all begin to look forward to the future and leave the pandemic behind us.

All of our holidays include a door-to-door service which transfers you from your home* directly to our coach and the same system will operate on the return part of the journey to take you home again.

NO changing coaches along the route or waiting for feeder coaches.

Light refreshments are available to be purchased onboard our vehicles, with many complimentary items, regular comfort/meal stops made en-routes to ensure you feel rested and relaxed throughout your holiday, even whilst travelling to and from your destination.

On arrival and departure Portage is provided for our passengers which makes the whole journey as care free and easy as possible, (where Portage is unavailable it will be stated).

So why choose to travel with us? Our holiday prices are final – there are NO hidden costs, NO entrance fees NO optional excursions to pay and as a local family-run Company, two members of our staff are on each tour to make you feel escorted and looked after. If you prefer, you can come and visit us in person to make a booking or enquiry, we'd be happy to see you. Ongoing precautions may be followed moving on from the Covid crisis, rest assured our vehicles are always specifically cleaned with anti-bacterial formula, hand gel supplied as standard, we meet National Tourism standard “We're Good To Go” & “Safe Travel”.

Our vehicles are READY TO ROLL!

We shall continue to follow: Government Guidelines, VisitEngland, The National Tourist Board of England and World Travel & Tourism Council.

- Before any departures our vehicles are vigorously cleaned using anti-bacterial cleansers, this includes all touch surfaces, grab rails, seat belt buckles, armrests, glass, flooring and drivers area.
- Our drivers/staff have been instructed on Safe Operating procedures, as advised by our Government to ensure anti-bacterial cleaning is done every day and when our vehicles are away from our base and depot.
- At the time of printing, passengers are requested to allow us to temperature test them prior to boarding our vehicles and to inform staff of any changes in health whilst away on tour.
- Our vehicles carry hand sanitiser and we request this to be used by all when boarding our vehicles.
- Our vehicles are “fogged” using an electronic machine & sanitiser periodically at our depot. Sanitised fog mist fills the vehicles interior to settle onto all areas, leaving no area untouched.

- Everything possible is done to ensure you travel in a clean environment, making you feel at ease, especially, as we travel out of the Covid pandemic, we shall continue to provide personal safety packs to all our passengers containing individual hand sanitizer gel, tissues and wipes.

If you ever require coach transport for a day out for your family, group or club, we also do coach hire too. Just call our office for a quotation, we can 'Take you There with Pride & Care'. Tel: 01254 830 545

Cream Tea, GMT & a bit of History

Monday 23rd to Friday 27th May 2022

Day 1: After departing our local areas, we head towards Kent with comfort stops along the way before reaching our hotel.

Day 2: We "weigh anchor" at the Historic Dockyard Chatham. It's full of fascinating exhibits including three historic warships, with interactive galleries and collections of RNLI Lifeboats. We discover over 400 years of history on our Royal Dockyard guided tour. We can also "learn the ropes" an insight into the art of ropemaking on the Victorian Ropery Tour as it's been made at Chatham for centuries. A truly interesting day that may tie us up in knots.

Day 3: Time is of the essence today as we visit Greenwich home to the Meridian Line renowned globally as GMT. Explore the many visitor attractions here such as the Cutty Sark, one of the last Tea Clippers to be built or enjoy free entry into the National Maritime Museum, the Old Royal Naval College or the Queen's House Art Gallery. Marvel at the glorious views over the River Thames or for the shoppers there's a fine array of crafts, antiques and collectables to browse at Greenwich Market.

Day 4: This morning we visit Quebec House for a guided tour of General James Wolfe's childhood home stepping back in time to the 1730's to view this fabulous house and gardens. Later we move over to Biggin Hill Memorial Museum, St. George's RAF 1951 Chapel of Remembrance – a tribute to those who died here during the second World War. Our day of history is sweetened by an afternoon cream tea, as we sit and reflect on these historic events.

Every person making a booking on behalf of a passenger or group of passengers warrants and confirms that he/she has the authority of that passenger and that each such passenger agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

(2). Any cancellation must be notified to us in writing by the person who made the booking. If you cancel your holiday:

More than 42 days prior to the start of your holiday, you will only be charged your deposit.

Between 42 and 30 days, you will be charged 50% of the holiday cost. Between 30 and 14 days, you will be charged 75% of the holiday cost. Less than 14 days before the start of your holiday or on or after the commencement of the holiday, you will be charged the full holiday cost. Should this occur, we advise you to seek recompense from your travel insurer. Note. We do realise that unforeseen circumstances may arise meaning that you have to cancel your holiday.

With this in mind, we strongly advise that you take out appropriate Travel/Holiday Insurance at the time of booking.

(3). Reeves Coach Holidays Ltd complies with Statutory Regulations regarding all client's monies held until the holiday has been delivered, this includes and is where sufficient funds are held to repatriate clients, if required, in the event of operational failure.

(4). Scheduled departures/holidays may also be cancelled up to 6/4 weeks in advance of the departure date if insufficient bookings have been made. If this is the case, we will endeavour to offer an alternative replacement holiday or a full refund of monies paid.

(5). Persons, whether an individual or party, booking the holiday, are responsible for the whole of the fee he/she has undertaken to pay and must pay the balance at 6 weeks before the start of the holiday period. If for any reason, the person cancels the booking this must be in writing and he/she remains responsible for the whole of the fee (subject to clause 2). It may be possible for you to transfer your booking to another individual with our prior agreement. Otherwise we will make every effort to resell the accommodation and if able to do so, will refund the deposit and any other money paid minus any administration cost and any other expenses incurred. Again, in view of the above conditions, we strongly recommend that you consider a separate Holiday Cancellation Insurance policy, which is available from several independent insurers and brokers.

(6). We will ensure any coach used by us holds the full Insurance policy requirements for bodily injury or accident to passengers on board, for a maximum of £10,000,000 in respect of any one incident. Our insurance does not cover passengers who are away from the coach. We do not accept responsibility for loss of or damage to passengers' personal belongings, property or valuables whilst onboard or in transit, so please check your own household/travel insurance policy to make sure that you are adequately covered in this respect.

(7). No children under the age of 16 shall be carried without the responsibility of their parents/guardians at all times.

(8). No animals to be carried, with the exception of Registered Assistance Dogs (pet passport will be required for travel outside UK).

(9). No drugs, other unlawful substances or goods or materials are permitted on board the vehicle and the passenger(s) shall free and release the vehicle & company & staff from any liabilities or responsibility arising out of any breach of this condition.

(10). In the unlikely event that you have a complaint please report it immediately to a member of our staff so that we may deal with it promptly and hopefully, to your satisfaction. If this is unable to be rectified at the time, then any issue must be reported in writing to the office within 14 days of occurrence. If you do not report any incident whilst on holiday then this will have an effect on any future claim that you may make. Any legal action or proceedings arising out of or connected with this contract shall be governed by the UK/European Law. Reeves Coach Holidays Ltd will aim to respond within 7 days of the written complaint.

(11). Subject to consultation we reserve the right to vary the holiday in any way we consider preferable due to adverse weather or any other conditions. It is a fundamental booking condition that taking part in this sort of holiday that there is an element of travel flexibility. The itineraries stated on our website and literature are indicative only and not a guarantee that a particular route will be followed or place reached. You must acknowledge that delays and alterations and their results, such as inconvenience and discomfort, are possible where unforeseen circumstances arise. Ultimate decisions regarding the safety of the vehicle, it's passengers and/or staff on board rest with the driver.

(12). All passengers must be able to walk up, at least 4, steps unaided to board the coach and must wear seatbelts whilst the vehicle is in transit, in accordance with UK/EC Regulations-10/01. We recommend the WC on the Coach is only to be used as an emergency facility and all children under the age of 13 must be supervised by an adult. The coaches will make regular comfort stops. On board facilities, such as hot drinks machine may only be operated by company staff. Personal items may be unable to be stowed in the refrigerated facility on board, medical supplies may be accommodated.

(13). We operate a policy of No Smoking/No E-Cig on board all our vehicles, the majority of our hotels used also operate a No Smoking policy, although some European hotels may still allow smoking in rooms/area, please ask if this is available at the hotel.

(14). Reeves Coach Holidays Ltd reserve the right to hire or operate vehicles from 3rd parties when necessary.

(15). Unfortunately, some hotels do not provide adequate facilities for guests with mobility problems or other disabilities, if you or any member of your party has any special needs requirements please notify us prior to, or at the time of making your booking, so that we may endeavour to make satisfactory arrangements, if possible, for yourself or any member of your group.

(16). A choice of menu for evening dinner is usually available and a full cooked English breakfast is usually offered on all British tours. The meals will either be table service or buffet style and usually include tea/coffee after dinner. On European tours, however, dinner is usually a set 3 course meal or buffet style, with drinks charged at extra cost, breakfast is usually continental buffet style. If you have any allergens or special dietary needs then please inform us at the time of booking and we will endeavour to make the required arrangements, if possible, with the hotel but this cannot be guaranteed.

(17). Some of our hotels used provide additional entertainment, where this is part of the programme details will be shown on the itinerary, where it is not stated it may still be available but is at the discretion of the hotel and is not guaranteed.

(18). A door-to-door service is operated on all advertised tours and covers pick-ups in the following Lancashire post code areas: All PR, All BB, LA 1-4, and some FY areas. Please enquire if your postal address is outside of this list, we may be able to offer a door-to-door service with a reasonable surcharge if outside our area, which will be advised at the time of booking.

(19). When you book with us you accept all responsibility for any loss or damage caused by you or any member of your party. Payment for any such damage or loss must be made at the time to the accommodation owner or manager or other supplier. If you fail to do so, you must indemnify us against any claims (including legal costs) subsequently made against us as a result of your actions. We expect all clients to have consideration for other people. If in our reasonable opinion or in the opinion of any other persons in authority you are behaving in such a way to cause or likely to cause distress, danger or annoyance to any third party or damage to property, we reserve the right to terminate your arrangements without notice. In this situation your total booking with us, including your return transport arrangements, will immediately cease and we will not be responsible for paying any costs, expenses, refunds or compensation.
